David Baugh
Cherokee County Jail
272 Underwood Street
Rusk, Texas 75785

May 19, A.D. 2008

Dear David,

It has become obvious that when you appeared in Jacksonville Municipal Court on Wednesday, May 14, that they could have and should have adjudicated the matter, however by setting it off to July 8 you virtually have a criminal status, out on PR bond. Your sister has shared some information with me, and it has become quite clear that you were set up by the JPD to be attacked May 15 on the basis of criminal status, even though you were not convicted, the mere accusation carrying the matter. JPD could have had the court reset the date for May 15 and you would have appeared to handle their bogus case. The court and JPD, acting in collusion, deliberately avoided clearing you of the bogus accusation in order to use a SWAT attack, smashing the door, endangering my life, and as an excuse to allegedly find drugs in plain sight. JPD are liars as you and I both know; furthermore the stuff they claimed was in plain sight, was in fact in a closed closet, and it turns out after having a pharmacist check the list, the stuff is anti-biotics, so much for being drug dealers!! Try to imagine anyone standing on a street corner trying to sell anti-biotics, PREPOSTEROUS!!!

Best Wishes Always!