Have you been a juror in the past two years? Yes* No

Are you assigned to active military duty away from home? Yes* No

OTHER EXCUSES

Medical Condition: You may be excused from jury duty if you have a serious medical condition which would make it difficult or impossible for you to serve. You must provide documentation from your physician that you have such a condition. The documentation must be faxed to the jury office at 512-854-4457 no later than 5 business days after your summons date. A judge will review your documentation and make a determination as to whether or not you may be excused. Will you request this excuse? Yes No

Schedule Conflict: If you have a scheduling conflict, please let us know about it in the "Scheduling Conflicts" on the reverse side of this form. We will do our best to work around your schedule when we assign you to a court for jury service.

Financial (and Other) Reasons: To be excused for a financial or other reason (loss of pay, self-employment, religious reservations etc), you must first complete this impaneling process and be assigned to a trial. When you appear in court, you may explain the nature of your financial hardship to the judge and attorneys, who may or may not agree to excuse you.

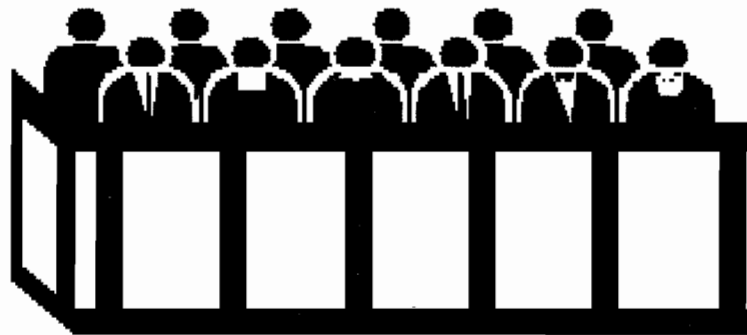

Explain a "No" answer on Qualification 4 or submit a request to be excused not listed above:

IMPANELING

INSTRUCTIONS

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TODAY

☒ If you responded to your summons online, you may already have a court assignment. If you have not been notified of your court assignment by this Wednesday, contact the Jury office at ijury@co.travis.tx.us or call 854-9669. Please do not stay at today's impaneling session to receive a second court assignment.

☒ Please complete the questionnaire, and pay special attention to the following items:

➤ Do you live within the Austin city limits? Although your current home may have an Austin address, your home may not be within the Austin city limits. Please verify your Austin address by reviewing your voter registration card to see if you live inside the city limits.

➤ Do you have schedule conflict dates? Check the board by the podium and list any schedule conflicts you may have between the dates posted.

☒ The judge will be giving instructions regarding qualifications, exemptions and excuses. Please listen carefully. You do not need to talk to the judge if you are concerned about how jury duty will affect your work or income. Scheduling concerns are handled during the court assignment process.

Court Assignments:

☒ Court assignments are given in five groups, A through E. To receive your court assignment, select the group that fits your residency and schedule:

➤ What do I do if I live within the Austin city limits but not in Travis County?

Go to Group A.

➤ What do I do if I have no schedule conflicts?

Go to Group B.

➤ What do I do if I have no conflicts for Group C dates, but have conflicts for Group D dates?

Go to Group C.

➤ What do I do if I have conflicts for Group C dates, but have no conflicts for Group D dates?

Go to Group D.

➤ What do I do if I have conflicts for both Group C and D dates?

Go to Group E.

☒ When your group is called, proceed to the assignment room to receive your court assignment. Please present your summons and questionnaire to the attendant. If you did not bring your jury summons, stop at the registration desk to request your juror number.

YOUR JURY ASSIGNMENT

- ☒ Please read your assignment before you leave or ask any questions. Once you receive and understand your assignment, you may leave and do not have to appear at this location again. The next time you appear will be in court, at the date, time and location listed on your assignment.
- ☒ It is very important to follow through on your assignment.
 - If your assignment instructs you to call before you go to court, make sure that you call at the time specified and follow the instructions on the telephone message.
 - Allow sufficient time to travel to your assigned court. There is no assigned juror parking at the main Courthouse complex. We recommend you contact Capital Metro about bus or 'Dillo service.
 - You will not be released from your assignment without court approval. It is essential that you report to court on the date and time scheduled. If you are unable to report due to a true emergency, contact the court where you are to appear as soon as possible (the phone number is provided on your assignment).

WE APPRECIATE YOUR SERVICE!
