

NEWS BITS FOR SEPTEMBER, 2007

Martin B. called from Arkansas to tell how his wife beat a speeding issue and other traffic matters based upon materials provided by Robert Fox.

Our friend Nancy Grant, website at nancygrant.info, was allegedly sentenced for unauthorized practice of law on Tuesday, September 25, 2007. She signed under protest as to probation, however the trial, sentencing, and probation are all void due to procedural error that is rock solid as the same type of procedural error happened in another case resulting in the appeals court voiding the other case.

Our friend, Steve Fritts was attacked a year ago by two deputy sheriffs taking Steve's Bobcat by force of arms claiming that it was stolen property; it was stolen property, property stolen by the deputy sheriffs by force of arms. Steve proved in several ways that he was the lawful owner of the Bobcat, however, they would not return the Bobcat. Steve sued them only to have the case postponed three times and the third time was without any future date as if it was tossed into outer space. On Thursday, September 27, 2007, cutting through serious resistance and obstruction, Steve brought the matter before the Grand Jury resulting in the indictment of two deputy sheriffs for aggravated felony robbery, two state highway patrolmen for lying to the Grand Jury, and one judge for official oppression in office.
