Why a "Call to Duty?"

Oath Keepers believe they have a duty to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and to uphold the Bill of Rights and the tenth amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

Oath Keepers call upon the people of the United States of America to defend their constitutional rights and to stand against any government, federal, state, or local, that seeks to infringe upon our rights.

Oath Keepers will not follow orders to disarm American citizens, to conduct warrantless searches, to detain American citizens as "unlawful enemy combatants," to impose martial law, to blockade American cities, to force American citizens into detention camps, to assist or support the use of foreign troops on U.S. soil against the American people, to confiscate American property, or to infringe on the right of the people to free speech, to assemble, and to petition their government for a redress of grievances.
