

Contempt

I hear you say "Contempt" - well, I certainly don't care to be disrespectful in any way - in concept, if this court is worthy of contempt then perhaps that is what it will receive. The treatment I have been receiving here today is certainly less than honorable and I am under duress.

Do you treat everyone who comes into this courtroom this way?

Is this attempting fraud?

Need I remind you -- that equality under the law is paramount and mandatory by Law.

Is this court biased against me?

And, in the interest of full disclosure - would that [your allegation of contempt] be civil or criminal?

Should it be civil then, "I do make demand that any alleged contract compelling performance be brought in and duly placed into evidence - for all to examine."

Should it be criminal then, "I do make demand that the damaged party be brought forth and that an evidentiary hearing be held."

Now, how say you?
