

This form of addressing schema lets people know that I am not a res-ident, (res = thing, ident = identified. Look up the word 'res' in a legal dictionary.) I am not a domestic UNITED STATES person (not living within the defines of the Buck Act.) And while I may receive mail at 0000 Breton Street it is not my address (c/o = care of) (think about it, who owns the address? Most likely the City of Austin, or wherever). The "36" is the original and still functional postal code. (Last two digits of ZIP CODE®, have a talk with your parents or with older others about how they addressed mail prior to the enactment of the ZIP CODE® back in the early 1960's. The US Post Office is not dead - it has been overlaid by the US Postal Service.) Spelling out the State's name separates it from the UNITED STATES (corporation.) (There are, authorized by legislature, state name abbreviations and they are generally three letters like: "Tex"; and possibly more like: "Calif"; do research to find out yours.) Bracketing the zip code places distance between me [you] and the UNITED STATES (Research the 1940's "Buck Act.") When used this way it is a gesture of courtesy. Some display it as: "near 78236-4210". Some use: "78236-4210 t/d/c" which means used/under with threat/duress/coercion. Always remember that the use of abbreviations is a benefit of using the United States Postal Service (USPS) as they have the copyright on all abbreviations regarding addressing. (Verify this by viewing the ZIP CODE® Directory located in Post Office.) As ZIP CODE® use is voluntary, some say: "zip code exempt, DMM 122.32" and not use the ZIP CODE® at all.

Get to know who you are (example) ...and act accordingly.

"I, Me, My, Myself, am a man, living, breathing, sentient, competent, serene, on the land, known by the appellation which is so stated and spelled correctly above. A Creature of God, a citizen of the soil, a living soul, by Special Appearance, in Propria Persona, unrepresented, proceeding Sui Juris, not alieni juris. I am a Citizen/Principal, one of We the People under Original Common Law Jurisdiction by the Texas and united States contracts, the Constitutions. I am the Secured Party of record, a Creditor, a creator, agent, Grantor, nonbelligerent." Some also include: "civilian" – but not "citizen."

The use of "without prejudice, UCC 1-308" in connection with my original signature / autograph indicates that I, Me, My, Myself have reserved My Common Law right not to be compelled to perform under any contract that I did not enter into knowingly, voluntarily, and intentionally. And furthermore, I do not accept the liability associated with the compelled benefit of any un-revealed contract or commercial agreement. I don't do unilateral contracts. I don't deal with third parties. I am competent to make informed decisions. Equality under the law is paramount and mandatory by Law.

"without prejudice" is a way out of the democracy and back into the republic afforded by the UCC. (NOTE: You may see "UCC 1-207" which is the older designation "UCC 1-308" being the newer.)

A lawful contract has; (1) Offer; (2) Consideration; (3) Acceptance by all parties for/of the Contract; (4) Signatures by all parties involved with the Contract. *Only the parties signing the Contract can participate in the discussion of the Contract. Full disclosure about the Contract is imperative (meeting of the minds.)

I, Me, My, Myself, may also use: "WITH EXPLICIT RESERVATION OF ALL MY UNALIENABLE RIGHTS, WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO ANY OF THOSE RIGHTS, PURSUANT TO UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE (UCC) 1-308 AND 1-103."

I, Me, My, Myself may also use: "All Right Reserved, without prejudice, UCC 1-308"

Sometimes one may see: UCCA 1308 or UCC 10-308. UCCA = Uniform Commercial Code Annotated or it may be reference to Anderson's publication on the UCC which is a fine reference should you care to spend the money for it. As each State has adopted the UCC you may see specific reference to the particular State's coding of it – however, while the letters preceding the title number may change the number portion remains the same. You do not have access to the UCC – you do things pursuant to it.

By John-Joseph Doe, agent, without prejudice. (If you do not want the item to be held against you.)
