

Title 4 United States Code, Chapter 1, Section 1: The flag of the United States shall be thirteen horizontal stripes, alternate red and white; and the union of the flag shall be forty-eight stars, white in a blue field. Section 2: On the admission of a new State into the Union one star shall be added to the union of the flag.

Our time together is ‘umbrella-ed’ by the flag of the united States of America, a flag of peace, that represents the Constitution (1779). The First Amendment (1781) to the Constitution which concerns itself with the freedom of expression. “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.”

Should that not be understood...

“Rights of a national citizenship not spelled out in the First and Fourteenth Amendments, but implied by republican character of our system of government, include the right to petition Congress (and the courts) for redress (of grievances), enter any State of the Union, assemble, discuss national laws and supply information to other citizens with respect to national laws.” Kinner v. City and County of San Francisco, 35 Cal. Rptr. 43 (1963)

A citizen who knows his/her rights, and acts upon those rights in a lawful manner, shall not be cheated, plundered, or stolen from. “Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that need not be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.” Timothy 2:15

It must be understood that only you can help yourself. Personal study and training are keys to the kingdom. This is your responsibility. In a republic we, each and every one of us individually, are responsible for ourselves individually. In a democracy things are done for us and while that may appeal to you at sometime or another – who are you going to call when things are not to your liking? One gets the government they deserve.

Remember this: you are competent to handle matters yourself. You are not alone and there is strength in numbers. “Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: if one falls down, his/her friend can help him/her up. Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves, and a cord of three strands is not quickly broken.” Ecc 4:9-10, 12
