What did you mean by that?

What do you mean?

Tell me more about that.

Would you elaborate on that please?

Give me an example of what you're talking about.

What else would help me understand the situation?

What else should I know about what you are saying?

How do you say that?

Help me to comprehend what you just said.

And that would be because of...?

Why is that important/

I cannot compete with a professional... are you comfortable with that?

I sense that you are frustrated by all of this... am I right?

It sounds like... am I correct?

With your permission I'd like to move forward...

If it's OK with you...

How does that sound?

Do I have it right?

Is that right?

If I am going to fast, please slow me down.

I can appreciate that...

I'm curious...

May I ask...

May I take your expression to mean ...?

When does another party have a right to enter / trespass into your private business?

And what gives another party the right to enter / trespass into your private business?

What is private property?

Repeat for jury
