To Whom It May Concern:

On March 14, I submitted the enclosed declaration to the company shown at the top of said declaration, pursuant to your publication 515. Mr. Bill Phillios, owner of the company, discriminately, rejected my sworn statement of citizenship, and refused to even read it. Please advise him, in writing, that I am not subject to withholding pursuant to your publication and my sworn statement.

Respectfully submitted,

Burness J. Speakman

Dear Taxpayer:

Thank you for the inquiry dated Mar. 24, 1991.

In order for you to have your employer stop the taxes from being withheld from your wages, you will have to submit a Form W8 to him. A blank form will be sent to you under separate cover. Complete it and submit it to your employer.

If you have any questions, please write us at the address shown on this letter. You may call Christine Bupp between the hours of 7:30 AM and 3:00 PM at 215-969-7518 for assistance. If the number is outside your local calling area, there will be a long-distance charge to you. If you prefer, you may call the IRS telephone number listed in your local directory. An employee there may be able to help you, but the office at the address shown on this letter is most familiar with your case.

When you write, please include your telephone number, the hours you can be reached, and this letter. You may also want to keep a copy of this letter for your records.
