KISSIMMEE, Fla. -- Sheriff's deputies in Osceola County issued a warning to motorists Monday after some police impersonators stole money durin

A motorist said he was traveling home Sunday when a white car that looked like a Ford Crown Victoria with flashing blue and red lights pulled behin

The victim said a man in his mid-30s with short black, curly hair and wearing all black got out of the white car and ordered him to exit his vehicle.

The man had a police-style gun belt, a gun on his left hip and what appeared to be a law enforcement badge on his right hip, the man said.

During the incident, the victim said another man in a blue baseball cap exited the white vehicle and searched his car.

Both men then fled in the vehicle.

When the man checked his car, he noticed money and personal items missing from his car.

Anyone with information concerning the crime is urged to call Crimeline at 800-423-TIPS.
