

Let's all get this straight. I am NOT a tax protester!
 I have studied the Internal Revenue Code.
 Subtitle A imposes a tax on foreign and possession earned income or upon the privilege of working for the government.
 The Income Duty is a tax on foreigners doing business in the United States, or on U.S. citizens working abroad in countries where we have a tax treaty.
 The Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 as amended is the other piece to this puzzle.
 Subtitle C imposes taxes to support socialism.
 Citizens are not required to participate.
 I agree with all of this, so there is nothing to protest.

Let's all get this straight. I am NOT a tax protester!
 I have studied the Internal Revenue Code.
 Subtitle A imposes a tax on foreign and possession earned income or upon the privilege of working for the government.
 The Income Duty is a tax on foreigners doing business in the United States, or on U.S. citizens working abroad in countries where we have a tax treaty.
 The Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 as amended is the other piece to this puzzle.
 Subtitle C imposes taxes to support socialism.
 Citizens are not required to participate.
 I agree with all of this, so there is nothing to protest.

Let's all get this straight. I am NOT a tax protester!
 I have studied the Internal Revenue Code.
 Subtitle A imposes a tax on foreign and possession earned income or upon the privilege of working for the government.
 The Income Duty is a tax on foreigners doing business in the United States, or on U.S. citizens working abroad in countries where we have a tax treaty.
 The Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 as amended is the other piece to this puzzle.
 Subtitle C imposes taxes to support socialism.
 Citizens are not required to participate.
 I agree with all of this, so there is nothing to protest.

Let's all get this straight. I am NOT a tax protester!
 I have studied the Internal Revenue Code.
 Subtitle A imposes a tax on foreign and possession earned income or upon the privilege of working for the government.
 The Income Duty is a tax on foreigners doing business in the United States, or on U.S. citizens working abroad in countries where we have a tax treaty.
 The Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 as amended is the other piece to this puzzle.
 Subtitle C imposes taxes to support socialism.
 Citizens are not required to participate.
 I agree with all of this, so there is nothing to protest.

Let's all get this straight. I am NOT a tax protester!
 I have studied the Internal Revenue Code.
 Subtitle A imposes a tax on foreign and possession earned income or upon the privilege of working for the government.
 The Income Duty is a tax on foreigners doing business in the United States, or on U.S. citizens working abroad in countries where we have a tax treaty.
 The Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 as amended is the other piece to this puzzle.
 Subtitle C imposes taxes to support socialism.
 Citizens are not required to participate.
 I agree with all of this, so there is nothing to protest.

Let's all get this straight. I am NOT a tax protester!
 I have studied the Internal Revenue Code.
 Subtitle A imposes a tax on foreign and possession earned income or upon the privilege of working for the government.
 The Income Duty is a tax on foreigners doing business in the United States, or on U.S. citizens working abroad in countries where we have a tax treaty.
 The Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 as amended is the other piece to this puzzle.
 Subtitle C imposes taxes to support socialism.
 Citizens are not required to participate.
 I agree with all of this, so there is nothing to protest.

Let's all get this straight. I am NOT a tax protester!
 I have studied the Internal Revenue Code.
 Subtitle A imposes a tax on foreign and possession earned income or upon the privilege of working for the government.
 The Income Duty is a tax on foreigners doing business in the United States, or on U.S. citizens working abroad in countries where we have a tax treaty.
 The Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 as amended is the other piece to this puzzle.
 Subtitle C imposes taxes to support socialism.
 Citizens are not required to participate.
 I agree with all of this, so there is nothing to protest.

Let's all get this straight. I am NOT a tax protester!
 I have studied the Internal Revenue Code.
 Subtitle A imposes a tax on foreign and possession earned income or upon the privilege of working for the government.
 The Income Duty is a tax on foreigners doing business in the United States, or on U.S. citizens working abroad in countries where we have a tax treaty.
 The Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 as amended is the other piece to this puzzle.
 Subtitle C imposes taxes to support socialism.
 Citizens are not required to participate.
 I agree with all of this, so there is nothing to protest.

